

Cancer and Hematology Centers

Ranked 2nd in Pediatric Cancer
by U.S. News & World Report

Largest pediatric cancer and hematology center in the United States

73,700
outpatient clinic
visits per year

Patients from 35 states and 26 countries

120 bone marrow
transplants each year

4 Texas
locations

Outreach in 7
international locations with over 1,000 new patients per year

3,060
new patients
diagnosed each year

Houston
Katy
McAllen
The Woodlands

Angola
Botswana
Lesotho
Malawi
Swaziland
Tanzania
Uganda

80 average
inpatients per day

160 physicians and scientists

200 active therapeutic clinical trials, more than any other center in the nation

800 staff

24 hematology
and oncology fellows

350 researchers
and staff in 42 different laboratories

Over $200 million in total external peer reviewed funding including $50 million in 2016

BY THE NUMBERS

Cancer and Hematology Centers Global Program in Africa

ANGOLA

Over

184,000

babies screened for sickle cell disease

Over

1,700

children receiving care and treatment for sickle cell disease

400

patients on hydroxyurea, the only medication proven to prevent complications of sickle cell disease

BOTSWANA

Over

400

health care professionals trained in pediatric hematology/oncology

Over

10

times more patients receiving care than when the program started

Nearly

60%

cure rate, three times more than when the program started

MALAWI

Over

150

new cancer patients each year

UGANDA

1st

ever pediatric hematology/oncology fellowship program for East Africa

TANZANIA, LESOTHO AND SWAZILAND

Over

100

consultations provided to local physicians each year for children with HIV-related cancer and blood disorders

7

African countries with Texas Children's Cancer and Hematology presence

1,400

health care professionals trained

Over

200

new cancer patients seen annually

Over

140

cancer survivors in Botswana and Malawi

